LEARNING OUTCOMES:

University Studies at the College of the Rockies allow students to complete their first two years of study towards a university degree. College students gain academic knowledge and skills in their chosen subjects. They also cover general problem-solving and critical thinking skills. The combination can empower them to participate as educated citizens in the economic, political and cultural life of their communities.

Upon the successful completion of this course, students should be able to:

- define the terms criminology, crime, criminal behaviour and deviance;
  - explain measures of crime and the limitations of crime statistics;
  - develop an awareness of the role media plays in perceptions, myths and fear of crime;
  - identify and describe the major social correlates of criminal behaviour in Canada;
  - explain the key principles of classical and modern theories of criminology;
  - explain Indigenous perspectives on crime and deviance;
  - explain and understand various theoretical explanations (biological, psychological and sociological) of crime and criminals;
  - define and explain typologies of crime;
  - develop an awareness for various responses to crime; and
  - research and apply an appropriate criminological explanation for a significant case study.
